

AATO chief highlights grievances

PORT BLAIR, OCT 5/-/ The president, AATO, Mr M Vinod, in a letter to the Chief Secretary, invited his attention towards some problems being faced for booking tickets for Sound and Light Show at Cellular Jail and Ross Island. The present system of online booking is creating problems to the stakeholders and visiting tourists due to connectivity problem and also it has a provision of accepting transaction of Rs 2,000 only at a time. The association requests you to revise the increased price as it has become difficult for us to make understand the logic of three different price for the same show. You are also requested to consider issue of tickets manually as per earlier practice," said Mr Vinod.

Shah challenges Cong to open debate on development issues

NARHARPUR (C'GARH), OCT 5 /-/- BJP president Am Shah Friday challenged the Congress to an "open debate" on the development works done by the party during its rule, as compared to the work done by Chief Minister Raman Singh in Chhattisgarh and Prime Minister Narendra Modi at the Centre. He also asserted that the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) had always practised the politics of development.

"We are ready for an open debate with the Congress on the development works done by its governments in 55 years as against the 15 years of Raman Singh's government in Chhattisgarh and five years of the Narendra Modi government," Shah told a rally during the conclusion of the "Atal Vikas Yatra" at Narharpur in Kanker district of poll-bound Chhattisgarh.

During the two-phase yatra, Singh covered all the 30 Assembly constituencies in 27 districts of the state to highlight his government's achievements.

The Assembly constituencies, adding, "It is commendable that even after 15 years in power, the chief minister connects with the people." He noted that Chhattisgarh, which was earlier a "BIMARU" state, was ruled by the Congress for three years. "But that (Congress) government did nothing to improve the situation (Former prime minister) Atal Bihari Vajpayee created Chhattisgarh and it was Raman Singh who developed the state. All sections of the society benefited from the governance of Modi and Singh," Shah said. While Singh developed the state, the Modi government at the Centre encouraged the development, he added.
